Integrity Pledge for Citizens

I believe that corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our country. I believe that all stakeholders such as Government, citizens and private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption.

I realise that every citizen should be vigilant and commit to highest standards of honesty and integrity at all times and support the fight against corruption.

I, therefore, pledge:

- To follow probity and rule of law in all walks of life;
- To neither take nor offer bribe;
- To perform all tasks in an honest and transparent manner;
- To act in public interest;
- To lead by example exhibiting integrity in personal behaviour;
- To report any incident of corruption to the appropriate agency.

MESSAGE

The Commission observes the Vigilance Awareness Week each year to emphasise the significance of probity and integrity in public life. During this period, public campaigns are carried out to promote these ideas. This year the Commission has chosen "Eradicate Corruption - Build a New India" as the theme for the Vigilance Awareness Week.

We believe that corruption corrodes the vitals of the economy. The Central Vigilance Commission, as the apex integrity institution of the country, in pursuit of the Vision of the Government of a New India by the 75th anniversary of our Independence, endeavours to promote integrity, transparency and accountability in public life.

The Commission strives to promote integrity and eradicate corruption with the active support and participation of stakeholders and believes that public participation plays a very vital role in fighting corruption and in nation building. Various outreach activities are organised in schools, colleges, villages, towns and cities to ensure collaboration with people.

The Commission appeals to all to solemnly pledge to unite to eradicate corruption and to build a New India.
